

SIOUX VALLEY ENERGY RECOGNIZES MEGAN KROGMAN AS "SCHOLAR OF THE WEEK"

Colman, S.D. – Megan Krogman, a student at Elkton High School, has been chosen as a Touchstone Energy Cooperative ‘Scholar of the Week’. Megan was recognized with a cash award by Sioux Valley Energy. She is the daughter of Curt and Gayle Krogman of Elkton. Megan will be featured on KSFY during the 6:00 PM news on Thursday, October 20 and again on the KSFY morning news on Friday, October 21 between 6:00AM and 7:00AM.

Touchstone Energy Cooperatives, like Sioux Valley Energy, and KSFY Television have joined together to recognize the achievements of high school seniors throughout the region. "Touchstone Energy Scholar of the Week" has been celebrating the achievements of high school seniors since 2002. Recipients are highly motivated high school seniors who excel in the classroom and community. This program was founded on the four pillars of Touchstone Energy: Integrity, Accountability, Innovation and a Commitment to Community.

“Megan is a great example of a student who is motivated, intelligent and exemplifies the qualities of a leader. Sioux Valley Energy is proud to recognize Megan for her academic, extra-curricular and personal successes,” said Carrie Law, Sioux Valley Energy Director of Communications and Government Relations.

Sioux Valley Energy, a Touchstone Energy Cooperative, is a customer owned-utility, providing reliable electric service at cost-based rates to over 20,000 homes, farms, businesses and industries in a seven-county area of east-central South Dakota and southwest Minnesota.
